Description: ‚1st Austrian Wind Orchestra Contest in the Highest Level‘

- 4. Repertoire Requirements
Wind orchestras have to perform the following compulsory piece and one freely chosen piece:
Thomas Doss: Einstein (publishing company: Hal Leonard)

Each wind orchestra must perform pieces as indicated in a time slot of 25 minutes to a maximum performance time of 40 minutes.

The piece chosen by the wind orchestra has to be of similar technical difficulty to the compulsory piece. Wind orchestra may play a short warm-up piece. This performance will not be taken into consideration by the jury and is included into the general performance time.

The original version of the freely chosen piece (score) shall be sent in four original editions to the Österreichischer Blasmusikverband by October 1st of 2019 at the latest. Copies of the original scores are only accepted if this is impossible for practical reasons.

5. Assessment

The adjudication will be made by a panel consisting of professional jury members. The jury results are final and may not be contested. The results will be announced after the last performance on Saturday, 26th of October of 2019. All participants will receive a written evaluation of their performances by the judges.

The jury assesses the performance of the orchestra according to the following criteria:

- | | |
|---------------------------|---|
| 1. Intonation and Tuning | 6. Dynamic differentiation |
| 2. Tone and Sound quality | 7. Tempo and agogic |
| 3. Nuance/phrasing | 8. Sound balance and sectional balance |
| 4. Technique | 9. Musical and stylistic interpretation |
| 5. Rhythm and metric | 10. Overall musical impression |

The jury awards a maximum of 10 points for each criteria. The maximum possible amount of points is 100. The final score will be the total of all individual scores for each of the pieces performed, and will determine the corresponding prizes.

6. Prizes

Prize money will be given to the top three wind orchestras:

- 1st prize: 3.000 EUR
- 2nd prize: 2.000 EUR
- 3rd prize: 1.500 EUR

All wind orchestras will receive a commemorative certificate. The jury reserves the right to award special prizes.
